

Fumble: Mitch and MIA s Story (Paperback)

By Anita Davis

Outskirts Press, United States, 2009. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Mia is a very down-to-earth church girl, but it wasn't always this way. She grew up in a no-nonsense Christian church that taught strictly about morals and values. The kind of church where the attire for women was long skirts or dresses. The choir's attire was white shirts and black bottoms as a uniform, in place of robes. Yes, Mia had attended more than her share of church meetings, from bible class, to praise and worship, to revivals, and conventions. Mia, now 30, has started to feel the pressure of her internal time clock. Those around her seemed to watch every changing second. Being a young lady in the church presented its own challenges. Since, she didn't believe in pre-marital sex, guys who weren't in church, although they might find her attractive and ask her out for a while, were not really interested in a sexless relationship. She began to feel like Thumbelina, who because of her unusually tiny size felt that she did not measure up to other girls. Mia could also...
