This will leave 2,000 pupils, making up the total estimate of 13,000, to be accommodated in junior high schools. In the present enrolment of the high schools, somewhat more than 40 per cent of the pupils are in the first year, or the ninth grade. Should this proportion continue, as it is likely to do, the organization into junior high schools of even much less than onehalf of all ninth grade pupils, the proportion estimated, would relieve the senior high schools to the extent required. These plans for the accommodation of the estimated large increase of high school pupils without the building of additional senior high schools within the next five years, cannot be carried out entirely without expense. In order that the total normal capacity of present high school buildings may be increased by 40 per cent, certain departments, as already pointed out,<sup>1</sup> must be extended. This can be done at an estimated cost of $250,000. This estimate includes the cost of a proposed addition to the East High School providing a gymnasium and adequate lunch room, facilities that this high...
