O. , 2007. LC Number: KF27 . H576 2005b OCLC Number: (OCoLC)124039977 Subject: Border security -- Technological innovations -- United States -- Evaluation. Excerpt: . . . 11 lack that training and expertise. In the case of the RVS program, FTS undertook projects it had neither the authority nor skills to properly procure and manage. Inadequate Contract Administration and Project Management Due to inadequate contract administration and project management on the part of FTS and the Border Patrol, as of the end of our field work in Summer 2004, none of the eight locations we reviewed had fully installed and operational RVS systems, despite almost 20 million in payments to IMC. FTSs lack of oversight of its task orders resulted in several questionable practices involving customers and contrac-tors, including payment made for shoddy work, work that was incomplete or never delivered to the Government, and unexplained increases in billing rates. Neither the BPA nor the individual task orders included detailed specifications, thus often leav-ing interpretation of the Border Patrols needs up to the contractor. Our site visit to one location in Washington State revealed serious problems with the quality of the installation of equipment. Cameras and other pieces of equipment were not functioning and had numerous reliability problems resulting in significant down-time and the need for frequent repairs. Border Patrol officials performed a technical inspection of the work and identified numerous problems. Remediation ef-forts were underway by the contractor at the time we made our visit. At three other locations (Tucson Station, Arizona, Carrizo Springs, Texas, and De-troit, Michigan), although task orders...
