His mom passed on, his dad left, and all he has left is his siblings, cousins, and grandparents. One thing Tyrone struggles with is his ability to learn and being a good student. With his low GPA and pitiful test scores that can dampen his chances to graduate, he must do whatever it takes in order to establish his self in order to have a better life and to rise above what s already dragging him down mentally and physically. Can he succeed? Will the struggle of the ghetto get to him? Most of all, will he survive?.
