Kalpaz Publications, 2016. Soft cover. Book Condition: New. :- Ever since this world came into existence, mankind is racing against time. 'Gone Are The Days!' is a story about Gaurav, a boy who hails from Sitamarhi, a small town in Bihar. As Gaurav was born in a Punjabi family , spent his childhood in Bihar, lived in Delhi afterwards and went to Canada thereafter , he faces a huge mismatch in life. He recalls his memories from the past and shares it with the world. He carries with himself, a thirst to control time. He rushes to chase his unidentified dreams, make his life comfortable and often overlooks what life brings for him; what life has to offer . In this hodgepodge of reaching out somewhere, achieving something big, seeking happiness and securing the future, he somehow remains deprived of enjoying his very own moments of life. In this quest of leaving everyone behind and reaching the top, there comes a time when he finds himself in solitude; not because he left everyone behind but because he couldn't keep up with them. :- Gaurav Sharma was born on March 4th, 1992 in New Delhi, India. Despite being born in a typical Hindu Brahmin family; Gaurav is an atheist. He is a little less sociable, reserved, blunt and meditative by temperament, but that does not make him an introvert. He can as easily crack a joke as he can bear one at his expense. As far as his academic credentials are concerned, he so far has earned a Post Degree Diploma in Business Administration from Langara College, Canada and a Bachelor Degree in Journalism and Mass Communication from Guru Gobind Singh Indraprastha University, New Delhi, India. He likes to eat different types of vegetarian foods and writes opinion articles for various...
