The passage in Mr. Ziemanns diary, to which I shall be most happy to refer now, runs thus: --Having sold our house and property, and after a very blessed farewell from all friends and relatives, we left Zabakuk on Thursday, the 25th August (1842), and arrived quite well at Berlin on Friday, the 26th August, with our bed and trunk, and were very kindly received by Pastor Gossner, who gave us also lodging. After being through him greatly edified in the word of God, and being blessed by the Lord, we were on Monday, the 5th September, 4 oclock p. m. , ordained by Pastor Gossner in the Bethlehems church before the Holy altar of the Lord in the presence of a large congregation; together with us there were also ordained two brethren, Gottlieb Noeser and Jul. Voss, and two sisters, Amalia Hennig and Amalia Brauer. Our dear Lord and Saviour gave us great blessings and we felt the presence and breathings of His good Holy Spirit, and His peace in our hearts. Pastor Gossner preached a sermon on Matthew x--16, and enjoined upon us most urgently the poor heathen, that we should preach to them the true and pure Gospel of Christ, and show them with prayer and love to the Wounds of our Saviour, and that we should remain steadfast in faith, and preach nothing but Jesus Christ crucified for the salvation of the whole...
