The Board is to secure, as far as possible, the needed revenues for the University and is to determine the ways in which university funds shall be applied. It is to map out university policy, but it must, of necessity, leave the execution of that policy to its executive agents. Such agents must be capable, and, within the general line of policy laid down by the Board, they should not be interfered with. The President of the University 2. The President shall be the chief executive officer of the University and a member of the faculty of each college and school therein. He shall be elected by the Board of Trustees and his term of office shall be at the pleasure of the Board. The President shall attend the meetings of the Board and participate in its deliberations. He may act with freedom within the lines of general policy approved by the Board on his recommendation, but in any particular...
