Respectfully, etc., C. W. RUBEY., Late Captain of 6th Provisional Enrolled Militia and 15th Mo. Cav. Vol., Aide-de-Camp on the Staff of Gen. John B. Sanborn, Commanding in the Field During the Price Raid. After this campaign I was in no more actual battles. I conducted a campaign against the Commanche, Kiowa, Cheyenne, Arapahoe and Apache tribes of the Upper Arkansas, and had a few affairs with the Indians, and closed up all the difficulties between the Indians and the whites by the treaty entered into at the mouth of the Little Arkansas, in October, 1865. The foregoing reports and narratives are a fair exhibition of the military services rendered by me in battle, but do not give a glimpse even of the marching, countermarching, bivouacking and exposures to storms and heat and hardships that were endured by the command...
